

anyone can make towels,
but few make them with the love, care and skill that we do

KESHARDEO COMBINES

is a trusted name in India for 100% cotton premium woven bath linen.

Based in Solapur, Maharashtra State, India, our manufacturing facilities are well-equipped to do justice to any design and specifications for terry towels.

Over the past 15 years of our presence in the business, we have metamorphosed to one of India's leading terry towel exporters, with a strong emphasis on design and research.

Creations by our in-house design team are available at leading stores in Europe, Australasia and USA.

1

Doubling

This is an in-house process. We double the 20's single yarn for pile and ground.

Dyeing

We dye our yarn using Hank machines to get optimum fastness and bright colours.

Dyes and chemicals used are all eco-friendly, azo-free of reputed Indian and foreign brands.

Weaving

Our towels are woven on 400 – 800 hooks looms. Depending on the design requirements, we use 400 – 800 hooks looms with daily supervision and regular checks for proper weight and weaving.

All the stitching is done on Juki Japan machines with stitching thread of a reputed Indian brand.
